

RANDY EVANS, Mayor
DAVID SWACKHAMMER, Director of Public Service / Safety

CITY OF JACKSON

MEMORIAL BUILDING 145 BROADWAY ST. JACKSON, OHIO 45640
(740) 286-3224 (740) 286-2201

Effective Wednesday, March 18, 2020

Until further notice, the City of Jackson will be closing the following lobbies to the public; the Memorial Building, the Utility Department and the City Auditor's.

Despite the disruption, city employees will continue to report to work and business with the city can be conducted via phone, email and online resources. The public is encouraged to take measures to avoid being exposed to the virus including frequent hand washing, avoiding close contact with people, including public gatherings of any size, and taking other social distancing efforts.

Memorial Building

For all activities normally handled as walk-in, please schedule an appointment by calling (740) 286-2201 or (740) 286-3224. You may also email to cityadministration@jacksonohio.us or Fax (740) 286-3492.

City Auditor

The Auditor's Office Staff will be working, please contact us through the information listed below if you need assistance.

Phone (740) 286-2423

Fax (740) 286-9682

Email cityauditor@jacksonohio.us,

City Utility payments

- Will be taken thru the drive thru, night drop box and over the phone from 8 am to 4 pm.
- As always you may visit our website www.jacksonohio.us to make your payment online at any time. Just click on the blue link pay your utility bill online and follow the prompts. There is a fee to use this payment option (the same applies to calling the office to pay with credit or debit cards) and it will tell you how much the fee is and you can decide if you wish to proceed.
- To final out your account Please email us at cityutilities@jacksonohio.us or call (740)-286-4419 or (740)-286-7007 or Fax: (740) 286-5562

Randy Evans
Mayor
City of Jackson

David Swackhammer
Director of Safety and Services
City of Jackson

*Jackson County Apple Festival
Held Annually Third Full Week in September*

